

Change of Account Registration—Information

Changing to an Individual, Joint, or Custodial Brokerage Account

Helpful to Know

- Requirements for a registration change vary widely depending on the types of accounts. Look for your specific situation in this matrix to determine what paperwork you may also need to submit with this form.
- Please note: ALL required forms and supporting documentation must be provided at the time this form is submitted, or we will be unable to reregister the account as requested.
- If the reregistration is due to the current owner's death, a change to a Usufruct registration, or the death of a minor, call Inheritor Services at 800-544-0003 for assistance.
- Go to Fidelity.com/forms to download any additional forms that may be required.

Change of Account Registration

Changing to an Individual, Joint, or Custodial Brokerage Account

Use this form to add or delete an owner on a brokerage Individual, Joint, or Custodial (UGMA/UTMA) account or to change any type of account (except a business, retirement, ABLE, or 529 Savings Plan account) into one of those accounts. Do NOT use this form to update account details (such as a change of address) or for any Mutual Fund Only account (account number begins with a 2 followed by two letters) that you want to remain a Mutual Fund Only account. Do NOT use this form for Annuities, Cash Management Accounts, Fidelity Managed Accounts, or Health Savings Accounts. Type on screen or fill in using CAPITAL letters and black ink. If you need more room for information or signatures, make a copy of the relevant page.

Helpful to Know

Requirements for a registration change vary widely depending on the types of accounts. Review "Change of Account Registration—Information" at the beginning of this form for important information regarding the requirements for your accounts.

- To change the registration of multiple accounts, submit a separate form for each account.
- In certain circumstances, you will be assigned a new account number.
 - If a new account is required, you will need to wait until all recent transactions on the existing account (deposits, checks, bill payments) have cleared before submitting this form; otherwise, the transactions drawn on the existing account may not be processed. You will also need to re-establish any desired account features in the new account. They will not carry over from the existing account.
 - If a new account is not required, you will be able to keep your current account number and any existing account features (except checkwriting and options).
- If you want checkwriting on your account, all remaining and new owners must sign the Checkwriting form—even if you already have checkwriting on your existing account. Visit Fidelity.com/checkwriting to download the form.
- If debit card(s) have been issued to the joint owner(s) who are being removed from an account, you may call the number on the back of the card at any time to request these card(s) be closed. If the debit card(s) remain open after the joint owners have been removed, their debit card(s) will be deactivated.
- Note that if you use this form and your current account is a Mutual Fund Only account (first three characters of the account number are "2" followed by two letters), it will be changed into a brokerage account. DO NOT USE THIS FORM IF YOU WANT TO MAINTAIN YOUR MUTUAL FUND ACCOUNT. Instead, complete the Change of Account Ownership—Mutual Fund Only Accounts form.
- To avoid delays, be sure all CURRENT and NEW owners provide their information in the appropriate section(s) and sign this form (except owners who have proof of guardianship). Also, be sure to include ALL supporting documentation required for your particular type of request, as described in "Change of Account Registration—Information" at the beginning of this form.
- Registration changes can have tax and/or legal consequences. You may want to review this document with a tax, financial, or legal advisor.

1. Account to Be Changed

Indicate the owner whose SSN is the tax reporting number on the account.	Primary Owner/Trustee/Minor Name _____	Fidelity Account Number _____

6. Account Features

Additional features may be available for your account. You may establish most of these online at Fidelity.com/updateaccountfeatures.

Checkwriting

To add checkwriting, go to Fidelity.com/checkwriting to download the Checkwriting form. If maintaining an existing account that has the checkwriting feature and the owners are changing, a new signature card is required.

Margin Borrowing/Overdraft Protection

Allows you to use eligible securities as collateral for overdraft protection and to borrow money at current margin rates to finance purchases of securities or for other purposes (such as debt consolidation). Your request is subject to approval and periodic review, both of which may include review of your credit history. Margin can involve significant costs and risks and is not appropriate for all investors.

Required if current account holds a margin debit. Request margin borrowing/overdraft protection

Income and Dividends

All income from securities (dividends, capital gains, or sale proceeds) is automatically deposited into your Core Position. Dividends from mutual funds are reinvested in the originating fund. If the account number stays the same, the elections will remain the same as the prior registration. To change this election, call Fidelity or log on to Fidelity.com/updateaccountfeatures.

7. Core Position

If a new account number is assigned, any cash balances awaiting your further instruction will be swept into the Fidelity Government Money Market Fund (SPAXX) (referred to as your "Core Position"). There may be other options available for your Core Position. If so, you can change your Core Position to one of these other options after your account is opened.

If a new account is not required, the current Core Position option will remain in place.

Form continues on next page. ▶▶

8. Signatures and Dates All REMOVED, CURRENT, and NEW account owners must sign and date.

In the section below, "Fidelity," "us," and "we" refer to Fidelity Brokerage Services LLC, National Financial Services LLC and their affiliates, and their respective employees, agents, representatives, shareholders, successors, and assigns as the context may require; "you" and "account owner" refer to the existing and/or new owner indicated on this form, as the context may require; and for any account with more than one owner (such as a joint or trust account), "you" and "account owner" or "account owners" refer to all owners, collectively and individually.

By signing below, you:

Current account owner(s), trustee(s), custodian(s), and/or legal representative(s) authorizing the change in registration:

- Request that Fidelity change the current registration of your account to the new registration as indicated on this form, and you understand that in certain circumstances a new account number may be assigned.
- Acknowledge and understand that by changing the registration, you may be changing the ownership interests and/or removing individuals authorized to transact business or access this account.

New/remaining account owner(s):

- Affirm that you are at least 18 years old and legally authorized to enter into the agreements associated with this form in the state in which you reside.
- Certify that all information provided in this form is true, accurate, and complete.
- Agree that any information given on this form is subject to verification; authorize us to act on all instructions approved on this form, to obtain a credit or other financial responsibility report on you and, upon written request, to provide the name and address of the credit reporting agency used.
- Affirm that you have received and read the prospectus or other applicable disclosure for the Core Position and the description of the Core Position in the Customer Agreement, including Fidelity's right to change the options available.
- Agree to the use of the Core Position specified above to hold assets pending investment, withdrawal, or other instructions.
- Understand that: (i) generally, Fidelity earns more compensation when you invest in products offered by an affiliate of Fidelity, and the compensation earned, as well as your yield, varies by product; (ii) notwithstanding any contrary provisions in any underlying account documentation, other options may be available for your core position after opening your account, and, if other options are available, you may select a different option by updating your Core Position on Fidelity.com or through a representative; and (iii) in certain circumstances, such as when Fidelity determines that you reside outside the United States, the Core Position will operate differently.

- Affirm that you have received, read, understood, and agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of the Customer Agreement, and this form (including the Fee Schedule), as is currently in effect and as may be amended in the future.
- Hereby constitute and appoint Fidelity your true and lawful attorney to surrender for redemption any and all shares held in your account with full power of substitution in the premises, and further acknowledge that Fidelity may cease to act as agent to the above appointment after providing notice to your account's address of record.
- Certify and agree that the certifications, authorizations, and appointments in this document will continue until Fidelity receives actual written notice of any change thereof.
- Acknowledge that you will receive a monthly account statement from Fidelity, unless there are no transactions in a particular month. In any case, you will receive a statement quarterly.
- Understand that, upon issuer's request in accordance with applicable rules and regulations, Fidelity will supply your name to issuers of any securities held in your account so you might receive any important information regarding them, unless you notify Fidelity otherwise.
- Consent to have only one copy of Fidelity mutual fund shareholder documents, such as prospectuses and shareholder reports ("Documents"), delivered to you and any other investors sharing your address. Your Documents, if held in eligible accounts, will be householded indefinitely; however, you may revoke this consent at any time by contacting Fidelity at 800-343-3548 and you will begin receiving multiple copies within 30 days. As Documents for other investments become available in the future, these Documents may also be householded in accordance with this authorization or any notice or agreement you received or entered into with Fidelity or its service providers.

- Agree that upon transfer of assets due to any life event (death, divorce, etc.), and unless otherwise instructed, all dividend/interest income paid to the Transferor (Current Asset Holder) of $100 or less will be systematically allocated to the Transferee (New Asset Holder) receiving the largest share proportion of the account assets. If the account is transferred evenly, the dividend/interest income will be systematically allocated to the last transferee paid.
- Affirm that you understand that you could lose money by investing in a money market fund. Although the fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it cannot guarantee it will do so. An investment in the fund is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. Fidelity Investments and its affiliates, the fund's sponsor, have no legal obligation to provide financial support to money market funds and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the fund at any time.

If applying for margin:

- Hereby authorize Fidelity to hypothecate (lend) or rehypothecate, either separately or with the property of others, either to Fidelity or others, any property Fidelity may be carrying for you on margin or otherwise extending credit. This authorization applies to all of your margin accounts Fidelity carries and shall remain in force until Fidelity receives written notice of revocation or margin privileges.

To help the government fight financial crimes, federal regulation requires Fidelity to obtain and verify your name, date of birth, address, and a government-issued ID number before opening your account, and to verify the information. In certain circumstances, Fidelity may obtain and verify comparable information for any person authorized to make transactions in an account. Also, federal regulation requires Fidelity to obtain and verify the beneficial owners and control persons of legal entity customers. Requiring the disclosure of key individuals who own or control a legal entity helps law enforcement investigate and prosecute crimes. Your account may be restricted or closed if Fidelity cannot obtain and verify this information. Fidelity will not be responsible for any losses or damages (including, but not limited to, lost opportunities) that may result if your account is restricted or closed.

- If you are a U.S. person for tax purposes:
- Certify under penalties of perjury that you are a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien or other U.S. person as defined in the instructions to IRS Form W-9) and the Social Security or Taxpayer Identification Number provided is correct (or that you are waiting for a number to be issued to you).
 - If the IRS has notified you that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return, CROSS OUT all the text in brackets.
 - Certify under penalties of perjury that you are not subject to backup withholding because any of the following applies:
 - You are exempt from backup withholding.
 - You have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that you are subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends.
 - The IRS has notified you that you are no longer subject to backup withholding.
 - Certify under penalties of perjury that the FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from FATCA reporting are correct.
 - If you are not a U.S. person for tax purposes:
 - You are submitting the applicable Form W-8 with this form to certify your foreign status and, if applicable, claim tax treaty benefits.

8a. Owners being REMOVED from account ONLY (Or Trustee or Legal Representative Authorizing Transfer)

The IRS does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding. You acknowledge that this account is governed by a predispute arbitration clause, which appears on the last page of the Agreement, and that you have read the predispute arbitration clause.

To avoid delays, be sure ALL REQUIRED INDIVIDUALS sign this form in the appropriate Section 8a or 8b; see the "Change of Account Registration — Information" matrix at the beginning of this form for requirements.

A Medallion signature guarantee may be required if the account balance is more than $10,000; see the "Change of Account Registration—Information" at the beginning of this form for requirements.

If the form is completed at a Fidelity Investor Center with all signers present, the Medallion signature guarantee is not required. You can get one from most banks, credit unions, and other financial institutions. A notary seal/stamp is NOT a signature guarantee.

Trusted Contact Authorization Form

Use this form to designate a primary and alternate trusted contact, that is 18 years or older, for your Fidelity account(s). Do NOT use this form for charitable giving accounts or workplace retirement plans, such as a 401(k). Type on screen or fill in using CAPITAL letters and black ink. If you need more room for information or signatures, make a copy of the relevant page.

Helpful to Know

- To prepare yourself and your trusted contact(s) for success, consider choosing someone with whom you are comfortable discussing your health, relationships, loved ones, work, and finances. You may also want to consider selecting someone who isn't currently involved in your financial life, like a beneficiary or power of attorney, to ensure fairness and objectivity.
- This form supersedes any previous trusted contact designations that you may have submitted.
- If you are using this form for an Entity relationship (for ex: a business account), we will assign the Trusted Contact(s) to the Authorized Individual that signs this form.
- If Fidelity has questions or concerns about your health or welfare due to potential diminished capacity, financial exploitation or abuse, endangerment, and/or neglect, this form authorizes us to get in touch with the trusted contact(s) and:
 - Provide the trusted contact(s) listed below with information about you and/or your account(s), including notice of a temporary hold, but does not provide him or her with the ability to transact on your account(s).
 - Inquire about your current contact information or health status.
 - Inquire about whether another person or entity has legal authority to act on your behalf (e.g., legal guardian or conservator, executor, or trustee).

By signing below, you:

- Authorize Fidelity to communicate with your trusted contact(s) and disclose information about designated accounts to address possible financial exploitation or confirm specifics about your current contact information, your health status, or the identity of any legal guardian, executor, trustee, or holder of a power of attorney, or as otherwise permitted.
- Understand that this does not authorize your trusted contact(s) to separately access or transact on your account(s).
- Understand that you may identify multiple trusted contacts on this form, provided they are 18 years or older.
- Understand that this trusted contact designation is optional and you may withdraw it at any time by notifying Fidelity in writing to one of the business addresses listed below.
- Understand that you may change your trusted contact(s) at any time by completing a new form.
- Certify that all information provided in this form is true, accurate, and complete.
- Acknowledge that we may remove any trusted contact from any account, at any time or for any reason.
